

Free Community Reading Screening Saturday, November 15th - 10 AM - 3PM

Teachers from The Windward School will screen children in grades K-3 on reading and language skills. Screenings are scheduled for a 30-minute time slot. Registration is required. Please note: A representative from The Windward School will be in touch to confirm your appointment. For ASL, CART, or other accommodations, please email accessibility@nypl.org

During the free event, families can expect:

- 20-30 minute screening
- Private conversation with trained specialist
- Resources and next steps
- Activities for the whole family

The Windward Institute Free Community Reading Screenings are made possible by The Early Literacy Endowment.

DISCLAIMER: Reading screening is being provided to you and/or your minor child(ren) free of charge by The Windward Institute, a third-party service provider outside the control of The New York Public Library. You acknowledge and agree that participation in this reading screening is purely voluntary and that you will not receive any compensation or benefit from the library for you and/or your minor child(ren)'s participation. The Library has opted to provide this opportunity for our patrons to have access to free reading screening (the "Services"). You may elect to speak with a healthcare professional if you have questions or concerns about the Services or any course of action recommended by the provider of the Services. The New York Public Library is not a healthcare provider and does not endorse any service provider or the products or services they provide. The New York Public Library is not responsible for (i) the reliability or accuracy of the Services, or (ii) the security or privacy of any information you provide to The Windward Institute.
